[MS torn: ... of [17]94.
Official letter No. 217]

I forward to you the attached certified copy of the royal cédula of the proximate past 28th of February, regarding [the fact] that those accused of homicide should not enjoy immunity, unless it were unpremeditated or in self defense, so that you might have it published in the province under your command, in order that what His Majesty commands may be fulfilled.

God keep you many years. Chihuahua, July 23, 1794.

Pedro de Nava
[Rubric]

Sr. Governor of Texas.
